Sheldon M. Ross

Sheldon M. Ross received his Ph.D. in Statistics at Stanford University in 1968 and then joined the Department of Industrial Engineering and Operations Research at the University of California at Berkeley. He remained at Berkeley until Fall 2004, when he became the Daniel J. Epstein Professor of Industrial and Systems Engineering in the Daniel J. Epstein Department of Industrial and Systems Engineering at the University of Southern California. He has published many technical articles and textbooks in the areas of statistics and applied probability. Among his texts are A First Course in Probability (eighth edition), Introduction to Probability Models (tenth edition), Simulation (fourth edition), and Introduction to Probability and Statistics for Engineers and Scientists (fourth edition).

Professor Ross is the founding and continuing editor of the journal Probability in the Engineering and Informational Sciences. He is a fellow of the Institute of Mathematical Statistics and a recipient of the Humboldt U.S. Senior Scientist Award.
